CAG Presents Georgetown ARTS 2016

The Citizens Association of Georgetown (CAG) is seeking Georgetown-based artists to participate in a show of artwork at the House of Sweden from February 25-28, 2016.

- ❖ The show is open to artists who either are current residents of Georgetown or who have studios in Georgetown.
- ❖ The show will take place from Thursday, February 25, through Sunday, February 28, and will feature a reception on Thursday evening from 6-9 pm as well as mid-day special events and “art talks” on Saturday and Sunday. Chris Addison from the Addison/Ripley Gallery in Georgetown will be the guest speaker on Saturday.
- ❖ Work may be for sale or for display only, as the artist wishes. CAG will process sales and pay artists at the end of the show. CAG will receive 15% commission on all art sales.
- ❖ Artists pay a $50 entry fee to CAG to defray the cost of the show. In addition, each participating artist must complete a 3-4 hour volunteer shift during the show.
- ❖ The show is open to artists working in the following media: painting, photography, sculpture, prints, 2D and 3D mixed media. We cannot accept jewelry or anything requiring electricity. Pieces accepted into the show should be of a suitable nature to be viewed by families with children.
- ❖ There is no jury. Entry is first-come, first-served. Please submit your application and payment promptly to secure your space in the show.

We need volunteers to help launch the art show. If you can assist in any way, please contact Chair Joan Konkel, 202 342-2277, or joan@konkel.net with subject line “CAG art volunteer”.

Artwork Display Requirements:

- Artists may submit up to three pieces for inclusion in the show. The final number displayed will depend on space available.
- Maximum size per piece is 48” in the largest dimension, including frame.
- Maximum weight per piece is 30 pounds, including frame.
- All 2D work must be properly framed and wired for hanging, or it will not be accepted. The Georgetown ARTS 2016 Hanging Committee will select pieces to be displayed based on space and composition.

To enter, please provide the information below and submit 3 jpegs (professional photo images: 300 dpi) of your artwork to CAGtownART@gmail.com. Additionally, send a printed copy of your application and check for $50 (made out to CAG/Art Show) to Citizens Association of Georgetown, 1365 Wisconsin Avenue NW, Washington DC 20007 by January 31.
