President's LETTER

Dear CAG Community,

Fall has gotten off to a strong start for CAG, with an interesting kick-off community meeting at Hyde-Addison, a wonderful 30th-anniversary party for Trees for Georgetown at the Romm residence, a lively CAG concert in Rose Park, and a fun evening at Ella-Rue. Thanks to all of you who joined us for these events, which help support and build our community.

October and November will be equally busy. CAG's October community meeting featured the National Park Service and Georgetown Heritage giving the community a first full look at the revised plans for the C&O Canal (Oct 22nd at Pinstripes). For the November meeting, CAG is partnering with the BID and the ANC to engage the community in discussing approaches to the problem of empty storefronts (Nov 14th at Georgetown Park Mall). CAG's annual cocktail party and fundraiser will be Nov 5th at the lovely home of Marc and Nancy Duber. Attendance is limited, and tickets can be purchased (while they last) at www.cagtown.org.

Meanwhile CAG's committees continue their work, with two items of note this month. First, on Oct 17th the Public Safety Committee organized a get-together for block captains to share perspectives on public safety. The key role of a block captain is to pass along safety information to neighbors. It is an easy job that helps keep everyone informed and safe. Please consider volunteering as a block captain if your block doesn't already have one. Second, the Historic Preservation and Zoning Committee reviewed several large office and residential proposals on Wisconsin Avenue (the former Zara space and adjacent buildings), Prospect Street (the parking lot behind Wawa), and Water Street (the building with Gypsy Sally's). Comments from the HPZ Committee feed directly into the Old Georgetown Board process, which is critical in preserving the architectural and historical integrity of the historic district. CAG also issued comments to the Board of Zoning Approval on the variance application of Call Your Mother (CYM), a popular bagel store hoping to operate out of the former Greenworks space at 34th and O. This case involves detailed provisions of the zoning law and has both strong proponents and opponents. We should find out soon how the BZA will rule.

Finally, this month CAG is launching a new Urban Landscape Committee, combining transportation, parking, and urban planning issues under one group chaired by CAG Board member Stephanie Bothwell. This committee is sure to be busy, given Georgetown's ever-present parking concerns and the many innovations in transportation and urban design that are rapidly changing streetscapes here and elsewhere.

ASPECTS OF GEORGETOWN

Edith Schafer

"So, we will go no more a roving so late into the night, though the heart be just as loving and the moon be just as bright." That's Byron talking. Then there is Tennyson on "looking on the happy autumn fields and thinking of the days that are no more." Consider Shoeless Joe Jackson to whom it was lamented, "Say it aint so, Joe." But, of course, it was so. Back in 1919 he threw the game – for money – and broke the fans' hearts. There is no escaping the past.

Human beings have the ability to look back at the past and think how much they have lost.

But what has this got to do with Georgetown? Maybe a lot, because we had a glorious past and are waiting for the cycle to come around again.

So, let's look on the bright side: Crazy traffic, empty store fronts and potholes are not forever. And maybe someday we will have silent leaf blowers.

TREES FOR GEORGETOWN PARTY

Betsy Emes and Christi Cline

We want to thank everyone for donating and joining us for our annual cocktail party. It was a beautiful evening held in the equally beautiful home of Jennifer and David Romm. This year we also celebrated Trees for Georgetown's 30th anniversary. The occasion was marked by City Councilman Jack Evans presenting a resolution from the city stating that September 15 is "Trees for Georgetown Day" in the District of Columbia

We've been busy since the party. Several members of our committee have been out to then Casey Trees farm to select 35 new trees to be planted in the Spring. Thanks for your generous donations and it's never too late to donate to help keep our canopy thriving.

And don't forget, even though it's fall and we have cooler temps, we're still in a drought and our street trees still need to be watered.

Welcome Back Concert in Rose Park

Our "Welcome Back Concert in the Park" was a success as community members gathered to picnic in Rose

Park while enjoying classic rock music from THE OTHER SIDE. Jesse from Uprising Yoga Center guided us in a peaceful outdoor yoga session. Rocklands was offering BBQ for lunch, Captain Cookie and the Milkman tempted everyone with dessert while members of CAG passed our fresh apples picked from the orchards of Maryland.

The weather was hot but that didn't stop the kids from creating art in the shade or dancing with the band.

Whether they were visiting with ANC reps or talking real estate with the Compass agents, everyone was engaging, enjoying and embracing the day. Thank you to Friends of Rose Park as well as everyone who attended. We're already looking forward to next year!

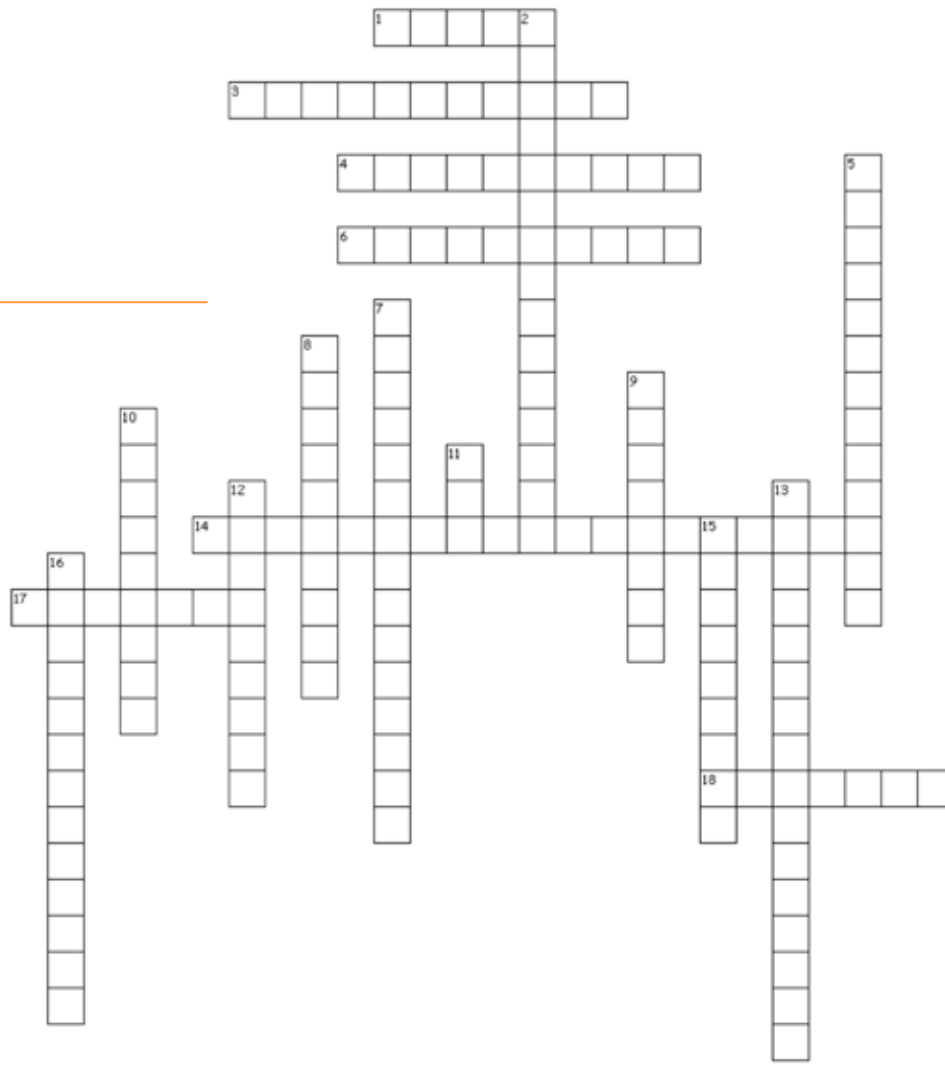

Many thanks to our community sponsors at Compass Realty Georgetown!

What Has CAG Done for You Lately?

Lisa Koches, Membership Chair

Did you get a tour of the new Hyde Addison school at our Community Meeting or see our CAG officer patrolling the streets at night? Did you enjoy an afternoon of music and fun with your family in Rose Park or discover a new tree planted on your street? If so, then you can thank CAG! These are just a few examples of CAG's involvement in the community. Our programs educate, entertain and support the residents of Georgetown.

The catchphrase "It takes a village" has a new meaning for us. Georgetown is a village, your village. And CAG relies on staff and volunteers from this village to make Georgetown a special place in which to live. We also rely on annual dues and donations to run these valuable programs.

Please join or renew your CAG membership today. If you are unsure if your membership is active, just call or email the CAG office. We can quickly tell you if your annual dues have been paid. And to avoid this uncertainty in the future, enroll in the auto renewal option. It's easy and painless!
